

Other actions for charity

Akelius Group has donated for charity from other entities than Akelius Foundation.

Akelius Stiftelse, registered in Sweden, has helped mainly via The Salvation Army. The most famous project, En salig samling, is a CD with popular gospels performed in a nontraditional manner.

This project gave two million Euro, 18 million SEK to help children. The CD was the top seller for six weeks in Sweden giving a volume for three Platinum awards. Everyone participated in the work without any form of salary. Akelius sponsored 800 000 SEK, mainly for printing the CD.

Other projects

1. Sending some seventy trucks with supplies to the former Soviet countries
2. Serving hundred thousands of soup meals Sweden, Latvia, Moldavia
3. Constructing a laundry and baths in Riga.
4. Support Children home in Chisinau Moldavia
5. Organizing an Art Auction in cooperation with Bukowskis and Göteborgs Auktionsverk. Akelius donated art for over one million SEK.
6. In the late eighties, as a marketing campaign for Akelius Skatt, Roger paid for charity the same amount as new customers paid to the company. Röda korset, Lutherhjälpen och Röda Korset in Norge got over one million respectively.
7. There are a lot of other minor projects like a truck to Childrens home in Ethiopia, during the war grants to fifteen students in Lebanon, support to Palestine, and in the late seventies planted trees in Israel.

On the other hand Akelius may help more efficient by letting good apartments and handling customers with respect than handing over money.
